Mrs. David Worthington Grove entertained at progressive pedro, on Friday evening, in honor of her daughter, Miss Meta Grove, of Logan. The prizes were won after an exciting contest by Miss Meta and Mr. Sullivan. Dainty refreshments made all hearts glad at the close of the evening. The table was most artistic in arrangement with its beautiful decorations of green and white. No one enjoys entertaining or can entertain more royally than "Daddy" and "Mammy."—Industrial School Journal.

Cards

Truly beautiful in appointments and pre-eminent in its success was the card party given Friday night by Mrs. Lafa Warner and daughter, Mrs. Henry Woodworth, at the home of the former on Main Street. An invitation presented by these ladies carries with it an assurance of a royal good time and the event of Friday night was no exception. Thirteen tables of euchre players were present, thirteen is called an unlucky number, but those who were fortunate enough to be seated around the tables, declare they were lucky to be there. Pink and white was the color scheme and the effect was very beautiful, and formed a pretty setting for the handsome gowns of the guests.

Mrs. George Work, of Glenview Heights, took first prize, a venetian glass dish. Miss Mabel Rose, second, a sterling silver spoon. Mrs. Sheppard, of Haydensville, third, Haviland china plate, and Miss Charlotte work, fourth, set of beautiful etched glasses. After the games were ended an elegant two course luncheon was served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. Sparks and Miss McLain.

Little Corinne Woodworth delighted all by her sweet singing, she was accompanied by her Mama at the piano.

The following were out-of-town guests: Mrs. Sheppard, of Haydensville, Mrs. Bess Thurness, of Columbus, Miss Estelle Finney, of East Liverpool, Miss Emma McLain, of Haydensville, and Mrs. De Camp, of Athens.

In the Social Realm

Mr. and Mrs. David Grove entertained with an Easter Dance at their beautiful home in the Lagonda cottage, Tuesday evening, about thirty of our officers. The invitations were unique, being printed on lavender paper and then hand painted by Mrs. Grove.

The guests were received at the entrance and conducted to leave their wraps by Mr. Yates and "Miss" Watson. The school-room was decorated for the occasion, and a large phonograph, operated by E. F. Sullivan, furnished music for the dancers. After enjoying some time in dancing and other amusements, beautiful souvenirs, consisting of small burnt-wood disks were passed, and partners for refreshments were found by completing the "Mother Goose" rhyme found printed on the back of each souvenir. Then dainty refreshments were served, each guest filling a seat in the school-room. While this was a close squeeze for some, all performed the difficult feat gracefully.

Mr. and Mrs. Grove's daughter, Miss Meta Grove, of Logan, was the guest of honor. At the close of the evening all departed, thanking their host and hostess for one of the most delightful evenings enjoyed at the School this season.

The Infant Church and Yet the Mother Church.

In a few words on Sunday evening, the rector of the Episcopal Mission said that the Mission was the infant church, and yet the mother church, because of its late advent, but the mother church of all Protestant denominations—the church that has given the bible in the English vernacular, the church to which our forefathers belonged. The little edifice was well filled before the service commenced, which began with a well known hymn. The rector, robed in surplice, stole and hood, then commenced the beautiful service of the Anglican Church, after which he preached a forcible sermon from St. Paul's epistle to the Colossians, "When Christ, who is our life," etc.

Splendid New Stock of Spring Clothing. Hats. Shirts. Underwear and Furnishings,— makes it easy to select from, for Man, Boy or Child.

If you want to know good clothes from an intimate association of many months to come, if you want clothes that possess in every detail the essential features of good clothes, if you want to get the "very best" on the market, at the price, just come in and let us show you.

We've sold pretty good clothing in previous seasons, but the values we are offering this season are still greater, which means much to the consumers in this locality.

The manufacturers from whom we buy our clothing, put every dollar into the clothes, style, workmanship and fit of their garments (rather than into magazine and other expensive advertising) and market their goods on purely "merit" alone, which means a saving of $1.00 to $5.00 on a suit. We believe that this is the age when people want "real values," rather than the name on the label. Here, the choice is big, be as critical as you like, let your taste be finicky, if you will, and we can please you.

MEN'S SUITS AT $6. $8. $10. $12. $14. $15. $16. $18. $20. and $22.

Remember, prices alone doesn't mean anything; it's what you get for the price that counts. It will be to your interest, as well as ours that you see our line before buying your Spring Clothing, Hats and Furnishings.
